FAREWELL DINNER.

Given by Lieut.-Governor Mackintosh, on His Leaving the N.W.T., to the Members of the Legislative Assembly.

On the evening of Dec. 7th, His Honor Lieut.-Governor Mackintosh gave a farewell dinner at Regina to the members of the Legislative Assembly. Among those present were Mr. Speaker Betts, Mr. F. W. G. Haultain, Mr. J. H. Ross, Mr. H. Mitchell, Mr. G. H. V. Bulyea, Mr. C. A. Magrath. In fact, all the members were present except Mr. Feason, M.P. for Medicine Hat, who is just now in the Yukon.

After the dinner and the toast of "Her Majesty the Queen" had been duly honored, Mr. Speaker Betts proposed the health of His Honor the Lieut.-Governor, referring to the great loss his retirement would be, not only to the Executive Council, nor the Legislative Assembly, but to the whole of the N.W.T. (Applause.) He (Mr. Betts) felt that no man could have been more devoted to the interests of this part of the British Empire than Lieut.-Governor Mackintosh had been. (Applause.)

His Honor, in rising to reply, said that he thanked all present for the kindness and courtesy shown to him during the four years he had been in office in Regina. If on any occasion he had fallen short in his endeavors to do his duty, the error was one of the intellect and not of the heart. (Applause.) His Honor then proceeded to briefly sketch the history of the Northwest Council from the first meeting at Government House, Livingstone, Swan River, and showed how a great increase had been made since then in progress and authority. He also referred to the self-evident development which had taken place throughout the Territories, and said that he believed, as he had said many years before, that this part of Canada would yet be the permanent dividing yielding sections of the C.P.R. In conclusion, His Honor said that all who felt themselves interested in the N.W.T. could rely on him for any assistance he might be able to give, and could depend on his sympathies being sincere, as he hoped they were loyal and patriotic. (Loud cheering.) He finally ended by proposing the health of the Executive Council of the Territories.

This toast was responded to by the Hon. F. W. G. Haultain, premier and attorney-general. In the course of his remarks he said that to lose the services of one who had done more to make the country known than any of his predecessors in office, was a fact difficult to realize. He did not desire justice to be done to one who had shown such a strong and deep attachment to the N.W.T. and all its interests. (Applause.) The hon. member then went on to speak of the official experience he had gained during many years' work under Governor Mackintosh, and of the great help he had been in legislation by bringing his diplomatic skill to bear on difficult points. Throughout all the Governor's tenure of office there had been no friction, but general harmony had prevailed. For his part, he not only felt the loss of an official superior, but of a personal friend. In conclusion, Mr. Haultain wished the Lieut.-Governor and his family many years of happiness. (Loud applause.)

Mr. J. H. Ross and Mr. Hillyard Mitchell endorsed Mr. Haultain's remarks, the latter paying a high tribute to His Honor and also to Mrs. Mackintosh and their family.

Mr. G. H. V. Bulyea said that he hoped His Honor would allow him to say that ever since he came to the Territories the people had appreciated his work, and he asked to be allowed to propose the health of Mrs. Mackintosh, who, assisted by her family, had added so much to the pleasures of social life at Regina. (Loud applause.)

His Honor replied in feeling terms, after which the proceedings terminated by the singing of "God Save the Queen."

Indian Head Items.

(From our own correspondent.)

A meeting in connection with the erection of a new Methodist church, was held last Friday in the City Hall, many carpenters, bricklayers, stonemasons and painters being present. It was decided that a new church should be erected in the spring, on the corner of Dewdney and Boyd streets. A committee, consisting of A. G. Orchard, E. J. Brooks and the Rev. J. H. Borrow, was appointed to receive stone and sand from all who desire to make themselves useful. Any contributions in that or any other line will be thankfully received.

Another sad death occurred in town last week. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Brooks lost another of their family, a boy two years old. This is the second death in their family within a fortnight. We tender our heartfelt sympathy to the parents in their sad bereavement.

The new post office will be ready in a few days, but the new post master will not take office until after the New Year is well over. The new post master is Mr. J. Harvey, now of Rose Valley.

The new peal of bells rolled out their musical notes on Sunday morning, which reminds us all very forcibly of the Old Country.

Dr. Kemp has placed a hot-air furnace in his house, which he thinks more convenient than his former heating methods.

E. T. Brooks is building a new warehouse in the rear of his grocery store. Mr. Geo. Mooney is the contractor.

We are glad to see J. Price out again with his sweet smile, but his foot still gives him considerable pain.

Mr. J. A. MacCaul's new furniture store is now complete. He has a fine assortment of goods.

The Union Bank started business last week under the management of J. M. Christy

"JUSTIFICATION."

Epitome of a Sermon Preached by Rev. J. P. Sargent, on Sunday Morning Last.

We publish to-day an epitome of a sermon by the Rev. J. P. Sargent, preached in the Pro-Cathedral, on Sunday morning last. His subject was "Justification." The rev. gentleman took as his text, Romans v. 1. In the course of his remarks he said that justification meant acquittal—the reverse of condemnation—the accounting to be righteous before the bar of God. St. Paul's great argument was justification by faith, by belief in God's power to save; a justification to be brought about by repentance, by a change of mind and change of purpose. There was a great deal of theological discussion as to whether justification was an act or a state; whether an individual was made righteous at one sweep, or whether justification was a state of righteousness with lasting effect. Might it not be considered rather as a blending of both, as an act of pardon, and as a state of rest in God's protection? What he (Mr. Sargent) thought to be the right view to take of the subject. But there was a contrary argument to all this. St. James, in his Epistle, said that justification was brought about by a man's conduct; in other words, that the justification that was necessary was justification by works. And St. Paul told of and exhorted his hearers and readers to a justification by faith. How then was it possible to reconcile those two views? Simply by remembering that a faith which was real was bound to show itself in works; faith without works was dead. Concluding, Mr. Sargent asked his hearers to consider the Advent season whether their faith was dead or not, saying that a faith which was real and sincere could only be proved such by showing itself in its works, and that so justification was effected a working, living faith in Jesus Christ.

(We are indebted for this summary to Mr. H. S. Goodier, who took these notes in shorthand while Mr. Sargent was preaching.)

Operation Successful.

In reply to numerous very kind inquiries regarding Tom Weal, this is the last letter from Dr. Harvey Smith: "Your son entered the hospital a few days ago to undergo an operation, with the object in view that I mentioned in my last, and which I performed yesterday with complete success, so far as the operative part of the work was concerned. I am now waiting to see what the result will be. I hope the pain that he has been suffering will greatly disappear. As he is in bed with both eyes bandaged, I thought a line from me might not be out of place."

—Fire broke out in Dover Castle Eng. on Tuesday last. The officers quarters were gutted and the powder magazine was in danger for a time. The fire was ultimately got under control. The Castle is said to have been commenced by Julius Caesar.

LOVE'S FLOWER GARDEN.

In Love's Flower Garden there is the full-blown rose of married happiness and the holy perfume of joyous motherhood for every woman who takes proper care of her health in a womanly way. For the weak, sickly, nervous, dependent woman, who suffers untold miseries in silence from weakness and disease of the delicate organs concerned in wifehood and motherhood, there are only thorns, and to her the perfume of motherhood is the aroma of death. No woman is fitted for the responsibilities of wifehood and the duties of motherhood who is a sufferer in this way. Every woman may be strong and healthy in a womanly way, if she will. It lies with herself. She needs, in the first place, a little knowledge of the reproductive physiology of women. This she can obtain by securing and reading a copy of Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It contains 1008 pages and over 300 illustrations. It tells all about all the ordinary ills of life, and how to treat them. Several chapters and illustrations are devoted to the physical make-up of women. It tells how to treat all the diseases peculiar to women. It gives the names, addresses, photographs and experiences of hundreds of women who have been snatched from the verge of the grave to live happy, healthy lives by Dr. Pierce's medicines. This book she can obtain free. It used to cost $1.50, and over seven hundred thousand copies were purchased by women at that price. Over a million women now own copies. For a paper-covered copy send 31 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of customs and mailing only, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. For cloth-binding, send 50 one-cent stamps.

MORMON INCORPORATION.

The Northwest Assembly has been having an interesting debate on a bill to incorporate a society of Mormons under the title of "The President and High Council of the Alberta State of Zion." The opposition to the passage of the bill was chiefly on religious grounds. It was claimed that to incorporate the society would be to legalize Mormonism, to recognize it as a branch of the Christian religion, and to countenance polygamy. The opposition was so strong that the bill ultimately carried only by the small majority of four. That the bill did carry is creditable to the good sense and liberality of the Assembly. The religious issues raised were quite beside the question. The question was whether certain British subjects should be allowed to incorporate themselves for the holding of property, the conduct of business and other purely civil matters. We surely have passed beyond the stage of regarding settlers from distant and evil lands simply on account of their religious opinions. "Equal rights for all," is now an axiom of our policy. There is, undoubtedly, a strong popular prejudice against the Mormons; but

20 YEARS OF BONDAGE

Dr. Chase's K-L Pills Loose
the Shackles of Constipation and Stomach Disorders.

In summing up the causes of human misery it will be found that by far the greatest sources of disease originate in derangement of the Stomach and Bowels. People will abuse their stomachs and neglect the calls of nature till they bring on themselves her vengeance. To get back to nature's paths, to have the Stomach and Bowels once more fulfilling their function properly, to clear the system of all the results and consequences of poisons accumulating and circulating in the blood is the work of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Mr. Thos. Miller, Lucknow, Ont., says that he was afflicted with Stomach Trouble and Constipation for about 20 years, during which time he tried almost everything he heard of, but to no purpose. Mr. H. Day, the popular druggist, sent him a sample of Dr. Chase's K-L Pills. The first dose he took did him good, and they have proved so effective in his case that he recommends them to all those afflicted as he was.

These Pills may be had of all Dealers at it would be unfortunate were that prejudice to be given legislative sanction. The prejudice is largely an unreasonable one, and is strongest among those who know nothing personally about the Mormons. From a purely civil standpoint, there is not a better colony in the West than the Mormon colony at Lee's Creek. These men have made excellent settlers. The district in which they settled was one of the most unlikely in the North-west in which to found a prosperous settlement. It was arid in character and popularly supposed to be good only for range purposes. By the application of irrigation they have built up a most flourishing agricultural and pastoral community. Not only have they benefited themselves by introducing the practice of irrigation. They have benefitted the whole of Central and Southern Alberta; for the success which has attended their irrigation operations has done more than anything else to bring about the almost general adoption of irrigation in that territory, thereby greatly increasing the national wealth by adding immensely to the productive capacity of the range country. They have also furnished an object lesson of the proper method of settlement for the Western country, which it is to be wished the Government would endeavor to induce more settlers to adopt. The houses of the colony are all grouped together, something after the fashion of a Mennonite village, the various farms lying on the outskirts of the commune. By this method of settlement the colonists enjoy social advantages which no other English-speaking settlement in the West can approach. Another feature of the colony is the extent to which the principle of co-operation is adopted. In the purchasing of their supplies and the marketing of their products, the cost of distribution is reduced to a minimum. It is, doubtless, for the furthering of this system of co-operation that the society in question seeks corporate existence. The fact that the Mormons thus confine their trade among themselves does not increase their popularity with their "Gentile" neighbors; and hence, perhaps, some of that opposition to their incorporation which veils itself under the cloak of zeal for Christianity and morality. But the frugality and thrift of these people ought not to be counted to them as a crime. The prosperity of the colony is the best vindication of their industrial and commercial methods. The colonists are much above the average in intelligence and education. They are thoroughly temperate, and, in point of honesty and obedience to the law, compare more than favorably with the ordinary settler. It is true that, theoretically, many of them believe in polygamy. But their Church has officially abandoned this tenet; and, as a matter of fact, polygamy is not being practiced in the settlement. It would, perhaps, surprise many to hear the strong arguments they are able to advance in favor of their theory.

After a discussion with an intelligent Mormon on this point, an unprejudiced person will be disposed to admit that, from a purely social standpoint, it is at least arguable whether the practice of polygamy is a greater evil than the admitted evils of concubinage and prostitution which seem inseparable from the system of monogamy. It is, at any rate, remarkable that, contrary to general supposition, the theory of polygamy finds some of its warmest and most intelligent defenders among the women of the community who advocate it from the high standpoint of virtue. Be this as it may, however, a speculative opinion is not a crime, nor should it necessarily entail civil disability. If every person who desires a change in the existing customs of society were to be disqualified to enjoy ordinary civil rights, it would go hard with a very large proportion of the population. Whatever their theoretical views, the Mormons have the common sense to know that the laws of Canada forbid polygamy, and that in Canada the laws are enforced. They have been carefully watched by the Mounted Police,

Three men have done a mighty work for the profession of medicine and they will ever be remembered as true benefactors of the human race.

Right Honorable Lord Lister, President of the Royal Society, Professor Edward E. Phelps M. D. of Dartmouth College, and Professor Charles Richet, are men that have lived to benefit mankind.

Professor E. Phelps, who gave the world his famous Paines Celery Compound, has gone to his well earned reward, but his great medicine goes on saving men and women every day. Thousands live today who owe life, health and vigor to Paine's Celery Compound, the mighty disease banisher. The weak, nervous, sleepless, rheumatic, neuralgic, dyspeptic and constipated are soon made hale and vigorous, and the deadly dangers of liver and kidney troubles are quickly dissipated.

There is now no necessity for continuing in agony and danger when such a rescuing agent as Paine's Celery Compound is held out to sufferers. Paine's Celery Compound assuredly cures; its thousands of magnificent testimonials in the past are sufficient proof. Have you tried it?

and also by many residents of Southern Alberta who are prejudiced against them, but no violation of the law in this respect has been detected. These people have behaved as good citizens since they settled in this country, and it is only fair to enter a protest against their character being traduced. Besides which, in the interests of immigration, we cannot afford to persecute good settlers because of their religious opinions.—Nor'-Wester.

Biggest Farm on Earth.

The largest farm in this country and probably in the world, is situated in the southwestern part of Louisiana. It extends 100 miles east and west. It was purchased in 1893 by a syndicate of Northern capitalists, by whom it is still operated. At the time of its purchase as 1,000,000 acres was a vast pasture for cattle belonging to a few dealers in that country. Now it is divided into pastures, fields and ranches, existing every 50 miles. The fencing is said to be the best about $50,000. The land is being adapted for rice, sugar, corn and cotton. A tract, say half a mile wide, is taken and an engine is placed on each side. The engine is portable, and operates a cable attached to four ploughs. By this arrangement thirty acres are gone over in a day with the labor of only three men. There is not a single draught horse on the entire place, if we except those used by the herders of cattle of which there are 10,000 head on the place. The Southern Pacific Railway runs for thirty-six miles through the farm. The company has three steamboats operating on the waters of the estate, of which 300 miles are navigable. It has also an icehouse, bank, distillery and rice mills.—Knoxville Tribune.

The Family Shoe Fit.

"Even at the prevailing low prices of shoes," said Mr. Norgleton, "my shoe fit was a serious matter. If I had had a single child to provide for it wouldn't have disturbed me so much. But I had a large family, and they wore out shoes, every one of them, with the most amazing rapidity."

"In this situation I started a little shoe factory of my own, to make the shoes that my family required. I thought I might as well save whatever profit there was on them as to pay it out to somebody else."

"The Norgleton shoe factory has, of course, done a good business from the start. Its trade was assured, and it has been a source of great comfort to me as well."

"As a father I am paying out as much money for shoes as ever. If anything a little more. And if I regarded life from the point of view only I should be as miserable as ever. But now, as far as possible, whenever I think of shoes I think of the father in the manufacturer; from that point of view I am happy indeed."

Rheumatism?

A UNIVERSAL LIBERATOR.

Relief in six hours! What a glad message to the racked, bed-ridden, despairing sufferer from rheumatism's cruel grasp—and this is a fact, borne out by volumes of evidence, for this greatest of pain-conquerors.

Rheumatism is curable—South American Rheumatism Cure is an absolute specific, and radically cures the most stubborn cases in from one to three days.

"I suffered intensely from rheumatism and sciatica. Tried many remedies and many physicians without any lasting benefit. A few doses of South American Rheumatism Cure wonderfully helped me; two bottles cured me."—E. Errett, Mercurville, Ont.

Thousands of freed slaves tell the same story—don't suffer an hour longer.

The Pope and London Smoke.
In referring to the autograph letter which the Pope is sending by Monsignor Sambucetti, Archbishop of Corinth, to the Queen, we remarked that 1200 XIII. is no stranger to the English court, but it is by no means generally known that the pontiff once paid a personal visit to this country. Such, however, is the case, though the event occurred fifty years ago, when he was simply Monsignor Pecci, acting as legate to the Belgian court. When he was being consulted recently with regard to the building of the new cathedral at Westminster, he asked whether any white marble was to be used, adding, laughingly, "When I was at St. Paul's cathedral they showed me some black marble and said it was white. London seems to be far too spooky for white marble."—Westminster Gazette.

The Fly of the Argus Eye.
Young people who are interested in natural history may get a good deal of profit from studying the common house fly. The most remarkable thing about him is that he is all eyes like the mythical Argus of old. He hasn't really got eyes in the back of his head, but they are so big and bulging that they answer the same purpose. That is the reason why a fly knows when he is being approached from behind by an enemy of murderous intent, and fits away in expediting fashion just as the folded paper that was intended to demolish him descends.

Good For the Complexion.
One of the best cosmetics for bicycle riders or persons upon the water is fresh cucumber juice. This will aid in keeping the skin of the face soft and smooth. To extract the juice from a cucumber, first peel it, and then cut it into thick slices and press the juice out with a lemon squeezer. A simple and harmless remedy for sunburn is to bathe the face in buttermilk.

DEFINING A "CARLOAD"

At a meeting of the managing committee of the Montreal Corn Exchange held recently, a subject of discussion was the "carload" question. A carload varies from 30,000 to 50,000 lbs., according to the market. It was decided to draft a by-law for presentation at the next general meeting of the association providing that when carloads of grain, flour, etc., are purchased without any special agreement as to the quantity to be loaded in each, it shall be understood that a carload of Ontario grain or flour shall mean 30,000 lbs., and a carload of Manitoba grain shall mean 40,000 lbs., also, that if any greater or less quantity be shipped, the excess or deficiency shall be settled between buyer and seller at market price at time of delivery.

KIDNEY SUFFERERS.

Be Convinced—There is Hope—There is a Cure.

Most Wonderful Testimony—Read—Believe—Live.

Clinton Cook, a well-known farmer, Stouffville P.O., Ont.: "For five years I suffered agonies from acute form of kidney disease. Leading physicians treated me. They relieved me but proclaimed my case incurable. I took kidney pills and other remedies with little benefit, and not until I commenced the use of South American Kidney Cure had I any hope of recovery myself. I felt relief after the second dose. I had excruciating pains in my back, was unable to retain my urine. My body was greatly swollen. Today all these sufferings have disappeared, and I am well and strong."

ONE HONEST MAN.

To the publisher:

Please inform your readers that if written confidentially I will mail in a sealed envelope the plan pursued by which I was permanently restored to health and manly strength after years of suffering, nervous weakness, lost vigor, unnatural discharges, and lack of development.

I have no scheme to extort money from any one. I was robbed and swindled by the quacks until I nearly lost faith in mankind, but, thank heaven, I am now well, vigorous and sound, and anxious to make this certain means of cure known to all.

Unsolicited endorsements from my grateful friends who have been cured through my free advice:

Mr. Mulford: "I saw your notice in the paper some time ago, and wrote you about my case. After following your advice, which you so kindly gave me, I am very glad to say that I am now perfectly cured. I wish to thank you a thousand times for your kindness."

"Heaven grant you a long and prosperous life, is the wish of a cured friend."

"Judge of my surprise to receive a kind letter of so valuable advice, absolutely free."

"I is the first advertisement that I have answered that did not ask me to call at the express office and pay for medicine that I had not ordered."

"I am happy to say that you are truly an honest man, and deserve the endorsement of both pulp and press."

In conclusion: I have nothing to sell and want no money, but being a firm believer in the universal brotherhood of man, I am desirous of helping the unfortunate to regain their health and happiness. Perfect secrecy assured. Address with stamp, Mr. Wm. T. Mulford, Agents' supplies, P.O. Box 59, St. Henri, Montreal, Can.
